

Mary Elizabeth Lord Legacy Club

The SPCA Serving Erie County's Mary Elizabeth Lord Legacy Club is for steadfast supporters who have made a financial commitment in their estate plan to benefit animals in need.

Mary Elizabeth Lord was the daughter of the first mayor of Buffalo, and the wife of Rev. John Lord, founder of the Central Presbyterian Church. She was a passionate animal advocate who founded the Erie County SPCA in 1867.

The benefits to becoming a Club member include VIP tours of the SPCA's shelter; a subscription to the SPCA newsletter, Animals at Heart; and name recognition on the SPCA website.

I have made the following provision for the SPCA Serving Erie County in my estate plan:

- Bequest
- Charitable gift annuity
- Charitable remainder trust
- Life insurance designation
