

The SPCA Serving Erie County presents its...

Tale for Two

Reading Program

Tale for Two is a reading program geared to help children and animals by providing a relaxed, non-judgmental environment to practice their reading skills. Story time helps children to build self-esteem and become more confident readers while providing socialization and relaxation for our adoptable animals.

Who: Kind kids ages 6 - 15

Where: SPCA Serving Erie County, 300 Harlem Road, West Seneca, NY 14224

When: Monday and Wednesday evenings from 4:30 pm - 6:00 pm; children participate either day each week for six weeks

Cost: $40 (includes orientation and 6 Monday or Wednesday sessions)

Children visit once a week for a 20-minute reading session, and can bring their favorite books or choose one from our library.

To register by phone, please call SPCA Director of Humane Education Christine Davis at 716-875-7360 ext. 262.

For more information, please visit YourSPCA.org.